Singing of Carols on Lawn Planned for Hot Springs

Mr. and Mrs. William Warren Barbour Passing Honey-moon at Resort.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
HOT SPRINGS, Va., Dec. 17.—The Christmas spirit is very much in evidence not only in the Homestead but in the cottage colony. Preparations are quite under way to appropriately mark the time, and a number of old time customs are to be followed, as the singing of carols on the Homestead lawn by village children and the raising of a huge fir tree in the great hall.

Among this week's arrivals from New York to join the honeymoon colony were Mr. and Mrs. William Warren Barbour, who were married last week in St. James Church. Mrs. Barbour was Miss Elizabeth C. Curran, daughter of Mrs. L. Sidney Curran. Mr. and Mrs. Barbour motored on Tuesday to Covington Mountain and returned through the Felling Springs Valley. Also coming down from New York on their honeymoon were Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Miller of Montclair, N. J., who registered at the clubhouse for golf on their arrival.

The New York colony was increased by the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Murdock, who are to be here ten days. Mr. and Mrs. Vincent P. Montalbano came in on Wednesday, also Mrs. Elmer Schiesinger.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Read, who left on Wednesday for New York after a visit here of four weeks, were entertained at tea early in the week by Miss Christine W. Biddle of Philadelphia.

Major-Gen. Sir Edward Morrison and Lady Morrison completed their visit early in the week and started for New York. After a visit of several days they will start for Ottawa. They were dinner guests before their departure of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams at their cottage.

Mrs. Zachary Tinker of New York will be at the cottage, Idlewood, all after the holidays, and on Tuesday entertained several friends at dinner. Mr. Stuart Palmer of Cleveland will be at Emerald for the winter, and on Monday entertained several friends at tea in the Homestead.

Mrs. Edgar Park will come down from New York early in the week to join Mr. Park at Boxwood Farm. Mrs. Jean Wilke and her daughter, Miss Margaret Wilke, are to be at Westside until after the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Hunter, who were here on their honeymoon left for New York, also Mrs. Sidney G. Ashmore and her sister, Miss Martha C. Vail, were departures for New York, also Mrs. John C. Mallory, who later will go to Aiken, where she has a house. She was accompanied North by her son, Mr. Garrick L. Mallory, who recently returned from Goa, in Portuguese India, where he made historical research for the Hispanic Society of America.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Everett left for New York, also Mrs. Herbert Stone, accompanied by Mrs. Quinby McKee and Miss Phoebe Quinby McKee of Pittsburgh. Mr. William T. W. McKays of Baltimore started for Charleston, S. C., where she will pass the winter at the Villa Margarita. Mr. and Mrs. George McFadden, also Mr. and Mrs. Q. C. Vroom, left for Philadelphia.

Departures of the week also included Mr. and Mrs. George M. Burnett of Southborough, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Kellgren of Boston and Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Bronson and their son, Mr. Richard S. M. Bronson, of Waterbury, Conn.; also Lieut.-Col. Robert Marsh, Jr., and R. T. White of New York.

Bellevue, Fla., Dec. 17.—The winter season at Bellevue promises to be a gay one. The Bellevue will be formally opened by Earle E. Carley, vice-president, on January 7. Golfing will start at the Bellevue Country Club, which has two of the finest eighteen hole courses in the South, simultaneously with the opening of the hotel. The golf tournaments scheduled for the season of 1922 are as follows: January 16-20, annual

Lectures and Instruction
Added to Military Exercises.

COBLENZ, Dec. 13.—Winter training plans for the American forces in Germany, as announced recently at army headquarters in Coblenz, call for at least three hours daily military exercises for officers and men in addition to the opening of schools for instruction.

Training will consist of drills, marches, tactical walks and rides, terrain exercises, map problems, lectures, conferences and schools for officers, non-commissioned officers and selected enlisted men.

One course of instruction is in a school of languages for the study of either French or German.

It is not an uncommon sight in Coblenz to see majors and colonels and generals, too, sometimes, with school books

Tampa Winter Season to Begin With New Year

Mrs. Oscar Daniels Among the Early Arrivals at the Resort.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
TAMPA, Fla., Dec. 17.—Tampa is pleased over the announcement by W. F. Adams that the Tampa Bay Hotel will open on January 1 for a five months season. Northerners are beginning to appreciate so keenly the spring months in Florida that Mr. Adams, along with several other managers, is having to give way to the demand for a longer season.

Mrs. Oscar Daniels of New York with her family again are here for the winter. Mrs. J. L. Griddle and her sister, Miss Josephine Pauline Schmitt, the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmitt of Louisville, have taken an apartment at the Hillsboro.

Opening the season with a meeting for the election of officers the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs put into office women socially prominent throughout the State. Miss Elizabeth Skinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo B. Skinner of Tampa and Dunedin was elected to the presidency of the organization, succeeding Mrs. J. W. McCollum, who had served for two years. Appointed with Miss Skinner to serve for the ensuing term are Mrs. Ernest McGowan Galloway, vice-president at large; Mrs. C. E. Hawkins, recording secretary;

NORTH CAROLINA

In the heart of the long leaf pine country

THE greatest appeal of Southern Pines is its climate. The air is clear and bracing, with balmy warmth that never ceases. Combined with this the community has the purest water supply in America and perfect sanitation. Southern Pines is located midway between New York and Florida on the "Capitol to Capitol" highway.

No southern resort offers better opportunity for outdoor recreation and sport. Among them are GOLF, TENNIS, DRAG-HUNTS, FOX HUNTING, HORSEBACK RIDING, SHOOTING, and perfect roads for automobile and driving. THE SOUTHERN PINES COUNTRY CLUB has one of the best and spryest 18 hole golf courses in the South, with Ernest French, Professional, in charge. Indoor entertainment features include dance at the hotel, Country Club and Casino. Card parties, lectures and musicals.

SOUTHERN PINES SEASON FROM DECEMBER TO MAY
Numerous hotels and boarding houses afford every convenience and luxury. Strictly modern in equipment. Southern Pines encloses no tubercular patients. Exceptional train service from the North via Seaboard Air Line. Winter homes, cottages, bungalows, as well as lots and farm lands for rent and sale.

Mrs. M. L. Stanley, treasurer, and Miss Bessie A. Williams, auditor.

As an annex to the present "auto camp" at Palmetto Beach, West Tampa is building at MacFarlane Park another modern outdoor hotel for Northern motorists. All the equipment of a regular hotel will be installed at the new camp. With thirty-nine automobiles in line, carrying capacity loads of passengers, the first annual South Florida motorcycle left Tampa this week for a tour of Florida West Coast.

Another organization that toured the State this week was the "Tampa Realtors," who motored across the State to attend at Miami the annual convention of the Florida Realtors' Association. In the party of Thomas C. Hammond, president of the State organization, were F. W. Hensley and several other Tampa members.

Mrs. Park Trammell, wife of Senator Trammell, was the guest of honor at a reception given by Mrs. F. W. Shepherd at the Woman's Club of Orlando.

Recent arrivals at Tampa include Mr. and Mrs. H. Gaylord, Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hetherington, Bridgeport, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Sewell G. Cushing, Fitchburg, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Smith and Mrs. Frank M. Sutton, Providence, R. I.; Mr. and Mrs. E. P.
